

The Kris Fade Show -
Aired October 2, 2024
That Time Comedian Matt Rife Joined The Show

00:00:00 uh Live Nation have got your tickets still a few tickets available I've been told Matt Rife is performing at Etihad Arena he is such a great comic right October 27th he's going to be here liv.me he really shot to fame like on Tik Tok really and yeah now you guys I know that he's a funny guy yeah but because he's attractive he is attractive yeah I believe like Nala you like this guy right I like him cuz he's funny and and and attractive but comedians don't need to be like attractive I agree with that but this guy I mean this guy's

00:00:33 very funny but the fact that he's like he looks like a young like sort of I don't know he looks like a Leon DiCaprio kind of feel he's got that boyish he's got those boyish good looks he's got that jawline going on like I'm anything he says yeah look at him comedians you can't do that cuz if you don't have a good sense of humor and you're not funny I don't care if you're good-looking get off my screen yeah and I think he's funny I especially love his crowd work but I had a chance to catch up with him and um we

00:01:04 talked about everything from like cancel culture to his rise to fame to Nala whether he's single or not oh that you asked if he was single or not asked to be single what he could be looking for but we kicked it off by of course talking about what fans can expect at Etihad Arena Matt Rife uh I would expect an intimate experience you know I feel like my shows really just feel like one big group hang out where we can laugh at all the things that we're not really allowed to laugh at in public there has a bit of

00:01:35 stories we'll do a little bit of crowd work and uh we hear it's a brand new show from both my Netflix specials that people may have seen before so if they want to brush up on what they might see as in like the type of thing they might want to see maybe check out either special on Netflix or either any of my ones on YouTube for the type of humor that you're going to expect but it's a completely new show so your relationship with social media is interesting I've seen a lot of your interviews where you

00:01:57 say you're not the social media guy but I feel like was social media the pivotal moment in your career would you attribute it to that it absolutely was the irony is so deep um I I have no problem ever voicing that I I hate social media I think it's terrible for Humanity and for us as people but as somebody who was able to buckle into it and dive in and work hard to kind of crack the code in it and capitalize off of it and capitalize off of the good that social media can do for somebody especially creatively on our

00:02:30 artistically um I do have to thank it you know but there's still no replacing a live show you know what I mean like you can no clip no comedy special ever replaces the energy of a live show so that's why I think people can really expect in in Abu Dhabi yeah earlier you were saying come to my show we'll talk about things that you're not really supposed to talk about outside of a stadium and we were talking to Bill Burr not too long ago and he's great yeah he's amazing but he's also very like let's talk about things that we're not

00:03:01 supposed to talk about outside the stadium and we got talking about like how comedy kind of shifted a few years ago as far as like quote unquote I hate the term but cancel culture I have to call it oh yeah yeah but he was like that's done we're done comedy is back to its kind of like Heyday as it was before do you agree I think so too yeah uh I think that the pendulum swung too far and too many people cried wolf you know the idea of canceling something makes sense if somebody's done something so

00:03:30 horrific that they should be in jail for it yes but it shouldn't tiptoe into comedy it's words in jokes with purely the intention of just bringing joy and laughter that's it and that's not for you change the channel it's that easy so I do think it's back I think I think you should be able to say whatever you want in comedy you know as long as the the intention behind it is good and it's creative and funny I don't I don't see any reason why you can't say anything and obviously funny is objective but you

00:04:01 know I have a very specific audience and I love them that's who I that's who I play to I don't try to convince people to like me who don't want to like me yeah makes sense and okay so I I was doing some Googling and there are like some frequently asked questions about Matt reif that I would love to try to get to okay starting with does Matt R work out yeah yeah every day it's kind of the thing that like keeps me sane on TS pretty much the only one hour out of my day that I have every day like actually to myself that I can just kind

00:04:30 of decompress focus on me kind of calm down the mental health chaos of balancing meetings and shows and writing projects um yeah I love working out I think it's good for your mental and physical health okay is Matt re an actor you did mention you were in the UAE to film something yeah yeah um acting is probably what I'm most excited about for the future of my career um we have a lot of things coming up in 2025 that we're going to work into our our new tour schedule I love it I love acting just as I I'd say just as

00:05:01 much as standups has always been my bread and butter I've been doing it since a much younger age um but I love I I love the creative expression in both of them equally okay what is Matt R's height I'm 6'1 I got very lucky is Matt R single okay I am yes what's Matt R's type what are you looking for what are you looking are you looking I'm definitely not looking I'm definitely not looking okay all right too busy I am focused very very watch on on myself my health and my my career right now um I

00:05:34 just want a a good person with a good heart who has a good sense of humor that's that's really the Bare Bones you know everything else after that I think is subjective and I just want to get to know you not anytime soon not anytime soon however we just did this on our Show recently where they said Virgos are the hardest to love and my friend you are a Virgo you know what comes with the territory okay I bring a lot of fun therefore I'm going to bring some difficulties as well yin and yang right I got to find balance maybe you just

00:06:02 have to earn my love maybe that's what it is maybe I'm not hard to love maybe I'm hard maybe I'm hard to get we'll see Matt r on Virgin Radio the Chris fure So after talking to him do you love him even more yes oh my gosh he he's so attentive to you guys go and watch the video and look at the way he's looking at me while I'm trying to talk to him you're married you're married pretty doesn't matter just want to say was in the other room when I was doing this interview and I said don't you dare walk

00:06:34 anywhere near me while I do this interview okay I want Matt all for myself the guy the guy the guy is lovely he's a genuine good dude he's a very funny guy as well go and see him at etat Arena in AB Live Nation have got your tickets limited left because it is selling out real fast right liv.me get them now hey this is uh if
